Lotta Jarleryd appointed new CFO for Acando

Lotta Jarleryd has been appointed new CFO (Chief Financial Officer) for Acando, commencing on the 18th of January 2010.

Lotta Jarleryd, 43, is currently CFO for EPiServer AB, and prior to that, she was CFO for Protect Data AB. In addition to that she has many years of experience as a chartered accountant.

"I am very pleased that Lotta has chosen to accept the offer to become the new CFO for Acando", says Carl-Magnus Månsson, Managing Director and CEO of the Acando Group. "Lotta will add valuable competence through her experience from international fast growing companies, acquisitions and her background within auditing."

Lotta Jarleryd holds a B.Sc. in Business Administration and Economics and a degree in journalism from the University of Stockholm. She replaces Bengt Lejdström who, as previously announced, has been appointed new CFO for Intrum Justitia.
