Carnegie once again tops ranking in corporate finance

Carnegie was tied for first place in the 2009 Corporate Finance ranking for the Swedish market. The ranking was performed by the market research institute TNS Sifo Prospera.

“We are of course pleased that our clients rank us highly. The combination of independent advisory services in corporate finance and the ability to quickly access the global capital market via Carnegie’s strong research and brokerage services is appreciated by our clients,” says Peter Bäärnhielm, Head of Investment Banking.

The survey is conducted every other year and based on 243 interviews with companies that have used advisory services over the most recent 24-month period in Sweden. In total, 33 investment banks were evaluated during the period from 1 April to 11 September 2009.
