Charming Magic!

Joe Labero's Finnish tour made a great successful start yesterday in Åland.

The concert hall Alandica was filled to bursting point and the crowd excited when Labero's Australian butler and companion made the entrance on stage to present the world renowned illusionist.

Today, the Ålandmagazine acknowledges 4 lighthouses with the motivation;

"It's amazing, the audience is taken aback again and again and you can hear the astonishment"

"The female assistant is split into nine parts, cut by swords and assembled again in a small box"

"There will be an intense evening with grandiose numbers and smart dexterity at a tremendous pace"

"Perhaps he is still the greatest magician of today"

Joe Labero makes a total of four performances in Alandica in Åland, all of them sold out long ago and as Labero with his crew leave the island, more than 10% of the island's residents will have attended the show.
