HiQ signs general agreement with Utfors

HiQ signs a general agreement for 2001 with telecoms operator Utfors. The agreement covers consulting services in the fields of strategic consulting, technical project management and systems development.

HiQ has worked with Utfors since 1998, assisting the company with strategic consulting focusing on Utfors' Nordic initiative, as well as the development of corporate services.

Utfors offers fixed and mobile broadband, Internet and telephony services.

" HiQ possesses longstanding experience of business and operational development and we are able to offer Utfors a high level of expertise, as well as our considerable experience of the telecommunications field," says Patrik Boman, MD of HiQ Stockholm.

" The frame agreement applies to the entire Nordic region, in which both Utfors and HiQ conduct operations, and we are hoping for further opportunities to collaborate outside Sweden," continues Boman.

" HiQ collaborates with leaders in the field of telecoms at the very cutting edge of developments. This allows us to maintain our high quality and top level of technical know-how, generating added value for all our customers," says Lars Stugemo, CEO of HiQ International.
