Wireless Solutions signs joint agreement with Link Evolution Corp

Swedish Bluetooth bound for Japanese market

Wireless Solutions Sweden AB (WSS), part of the Allgon group, has signed a joint agreement with Link Evolution Corp of Japan. Link Evolution delivers wireless communications solutions to Matsushita, Ricoh, Sony and other Japanese electronic hardware manufacturers. The agreement covers research and development of new products as well as marketing and sales of the current WSS Bluetooth portfolio on the Japanese market.

- The agreement gives us direct access to Link Evolution Corps.' channels of marketing and distribution, says Pär Bergsten, President of WSS. From now on our Bluetooth products will be integrated in Link Evolutions mobile applications and marketed to key target groups on the Japanese market.

Link Evolution delivers mobile solutions and standards to Japanese manufacturers of consumer electronics. The company is an active member of IrDA (Infrared Data Association) and have written several specifications/standards for the organisation.

Through the agreement WSS also gains a strong partner for co-operation within research and development. The two companies aim to develop new product lines within wireless communication.
