

Press release

Welcome to Loomis Capital Market Day, 17 November

In recent years we have been focusing on improving Loomis' profitability, and based on our report for the first three quarters this year we believe we have a good chance of achieving our most important financial goal – an operating margin of 8 percent for 2010.

We have therefore now developed a new strategy and new financial goals and would like to invite you to a Capital Market Day on 17 November where we will present these as well as the opportunities we have identified in the international market. Members of Loomis' executive management will present their respective areas of responsibility and we will also show you some aspects of our business, how we add value for our customers and the form that some of our services take in practice.

Participants from Loomis:

Lars Blecko, CEO
Jarl Dahlfors, USA
Ashley Bailey, UK
Marcus Hagegård, Finance
Kenneth Högman, Business Development
Georges Lopez Periago, France and Spain

The Capital Market Day will take place at the offices of Hallvarsson & Halvarsson, Sveavägen 20, Stockholm.

If you wish to attend, please contact Carina Cederblad, +46 (0)8 522 920 53, e-mail: carina.cederblad@loomis.com, preferably before 12 November.
