

Meda acquires OTC products in the US

Meda has acquired three well established Over-The-Counter consumer products in the US from GlaxoSmithKline LLC ("GSK"). Total annual sales for the products are about 100 MSEK, with strong profit margins. The purchase price was 235 MSEK.

"These well known consumer brands strengthen our OTC business in the US", said Anders Lönner, CEO Meda.

Meda and GSK are also pursuing further discussions on additional OTC acquisitions in the US market.
