

PRESS RELEASE FROM SCRIBONA AB (publ)

June 20, 2001

Expiry of the mandatory offer period in PC LAN

In connection with Scribona AB's voluntary offer to acquire all outstanding shares of PC LAN ASA, Scribona has received acceptances for a total of 1,693,992 shares, corresponding to a shareholding of approximately 2.3% of the outstanding shares of PC LAN. These reported preliminary numbers of shares under acceptances are subject to any corrections in connection with the final registration of the acceptances with the Norwegian Registry of Securities ("VPS"). Scribona already owns 69,187,262 shares in PC LAN (approximately 95.8%). Settlement for the mandatory offer will be distributed as soon as practicably possible (approximately June 26) and no later than 14 days after the expiry of the offer period. Scribona, which has initiated a compulsory acquisition of the remaining shares in PC LAN, is officially registered as the sole owner of PC LAN. Shareholders in PC LAN which have been included in the compulsory acquisition and which have made no objections to the settlement amount, will receive their settlement no later than August 1, 2001. Those shareholders which have made objections to this settlement amount will receive their settlement to the amount and at the time as set by the Norwegian courts.
