

RKS signs agreement with CGI

Swedish IT consultancy, RKS has signed an agreement to work with CGI Group (Europe) Ltd on the implementation of GIOS (Global Insurance Open Solution) at Nordics based IF Skadeförsäkring AB. Under this agreement – worth approximately 15 million Swedish kronor over a 12-month period – RKS will provide consultancy services to CGI.

Over the next 2-3 years the system will be implemented across all of IF's 86 offices, being modified and tailored to meet the company's needs.

“RKS has just launched RKS Finans & Försäkring, a new subsidiary for the Finance and Insurance sectors. This agreement reflects our commitment to these markets and we are extremely pleased to be able to offer our Oracle skills and consultancy services to such a major player in the global IT services arena,” says Ingemar Söderlind, President of RKS.

GIOS is a highly flexible component-based solution, covering all aspects of administration for all forms of insurance products including life, pensions and investment as well as non-life - personal, commercial and health. Specifically developed for today's e-business needs, it is easily adaptable to any market and is a multi-language, multi-company and multi-currency solution. It handles multiple distribution channels, business-to-business and business-to-client.
