Telia wins Investor Relations awards

Telia has won a prize for having the best Investor Relations department among major Swedish companies, as well as an award for being the Nordic company that has improved its investor relations activities the most during the year. Telia's Investor Relations Manager, Tobias Lennér, was also named best IR Manager in Sweden.

The prizes were awarded by the well-known U.S. publication Investor Relations Magazine, which has given its Investor Relations Awards in seven world regions for many years. The prizes were awarded for the first time in the Nordic region yesterday.

The winners were selected by 160 analysts and mutual funds brokers in the Nordic countries and London.
