PRESS RELEASE

STOCKHOLM, DECEMBER 28, 2001

COMMENCEMENT OF COMPULSORY ACQUISITION, SOL-SHARE TO BE DELISTED, AND EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

Eniro AB (publ) ("Eniro") has commenced compulsory acquisition of the remaining shares in Scandinavia Online AB (publ) ("SOL") (OMSE:SCOL; OSE:SCO). The Board of Directors have applied for delisting of the SOL-share from Stockholmsbörsen with January 15, 2002 as the last day of trading and decided to convey an Extraordinary General Meeting ("EGM") on January 17, 2002 at 5.00 p.m. in the company's premises at Kungsgatan 28 in Stockholm. The EGM is proposed to decide upon the election of new members of the Board of Directors and delisting of the company's shares from Oslo Børs.

Compulsory acquisition

Eniro has notified the Board of Directors of SOL that Eniro owns more than 90 per cent of the shares and 90 per cent of the voting rights for all the shares in SOL. Eniro has therefore pursuant to the Swedish Companies Act submitted a written request to the Board of Directors of SOL that the dispute concerning the shares in SOL not owned by Eniro is referred to arbitration (compulsory acquisition).

Delisting

In light of the acquisition of Eniro of approximately 90 per cent of the shares and voting rights in SOL by way of a public offer and Eniro's commencement of compulsory acquisition, the Board of Directors of SOL have applied for delisting of the company's shares from Stockholmsbörsen with January 15, 2002, as the last day of trading. SOL's shares are also listed on Oslo Børs and the shares will be delisted as soon as possible after the decision on the EGM, see below. The trading of the SOL-share at OSE could be halted before the delisting take place.
