Alfa Laval has decided to initiate new negotiations with the former owner of bioKinetics Inc.

Alfa Laval suspects irregularities in the accounting with regard to revenue recognition for certain customer projects in the recently acquired US company bioKinetics. Alfa Laval has therefore initiated a further investigation specifically addressing the suspected irregularities. The preliminary findings from this investigation support the suspicions. Alfa Laval has as a consequence decided to initiate new negotiations with the former owner Kinetics Group Inc. Based on available information the irregularities are estimated not to exceed MSEK 40.
