

Press release

September 15, 1999

Allgon increases collaboration with Ericsson

Ericsson has chosen Allgon as supplier of antennas for several of Ericsson's latest mobile telephones. This further strengthens Allgon's position as the world's leading supplier of terminal antennas for mobile telephones.

- We are pleased to receive these orders and this continued confidence from Ericsson. Ericsson has very high demands on technology level, quality and delivery capability, says Jan Edhäll, President and CEO, Allgon AB.

These orders also mean that Allgon will have an increasing number of large customers.

The increased collaboration with Ericsson will gradually impact sales, especially during year 2000.

For further information please contact:

Jan Edhäll
President & CEO, Allgon AB

Telephone: +46 8 540 822 31
E-mail: jan.edhall@allgon.se

Claes Silfverstolpe
Chief Financial Officer, Allgon AB

Telephone: +46 8 540 822 32
E-mail: claes.silfverstolpe@allgon.se

Allgon's business concept is to develop, manufacture and market radio-based solutions and other products for wireless telephony and data communications. Allgon's product range comprises systems and components for base stations, repeaters and transmission, as well as antenna solutions. Allgon's invoiced sales amounted to SEK 1,725 million in 1998, with 901 employees as of year-end. Allgon was founded in 1946.