Monika Elling appointed CFO at Intrum Justitia

Monika Elling will assume the position as Chief Financial Officer after Bo Askvik, who is leaving Intrum Justitia for pursuing his career outside the Group. The change over is planned to take place in the beginning of December 2005.

Monika Elling is 43 years old and has a degree from Stockholm School of Economics combined with MBA studies at McGill University in Montreal, Canada. She leaves a position as Equity Analyst at Enskilda Securities in Stockholm where she has been employed since 1999.

Monika Elling also has a background from Securitas where she spent five years with Business Development and Investor Relations. Prior to that she worked two and a half years in what today is Assa Abloy and was posted as CFO and COO in Arrow Lock Group in the US. In addition she has been Business Controller for Industor AB and responsible for accounting and administration in Sandvik Öberg, a subsidiary to Sandvik AB.

"We are pleased to welcome Monika Elling to Intrum Justitia", said Jan Roxendal, President and CEO. "She has an impressive track record and with her profound knowledge from the financial sector and her operational experience she will be an important contributor to the continuous success of our company".
