Trelleborg reinforces its focus on communications and investor relations

Viktoria Bergman appointed Senior Vice President Corporate Communications for the Trelleborg Group; Mikael Byström appointed Senior Vice President Investor Relations

Viktoria Bergman has been appointed Senior Vice President Corporate Communications and member of Trelleborg's Group Management effective November 1, 2005. Viktoria Bergman has worked within Trelleborg as Vice President Corporate Communications since 2002.

Effective November 1, 2005, the current Senior Vice President Corporate Communications, Mikael Byström, will assume responsibility for investor relations and will remain a member of Group Management.

The division of the communication function is intended to reinforce focus on communications efforts to support business operations, including the increased prioritization of branding issues and media relations, and, at the same time, to increase the focus on investor relations.

Further information can be obtained from Viktoria Bergman, +46 (0)410-67094 or +46 (0)708-475733, or from Mikael Byström, +46 (0)410-670 37 or +46 (0)708-552169.
