

PRESS RELEASE

January 19, 2000

CLARIFICATION

At the request of the Sifo Interactive Media, Everyday Webguide AB, which operates the Internet portal Everyday.com, wishes to clarify information released yesterday, January 18. The clarification should aid the comparison of Everyday's statistics with those of other portals, such as Passagen.

The 1.4 million visitors announced yesterday applied to Everyday Webguide and should be understood in the same way as the corresponding statistics for Passagen Nätverk and other portals that are reported at the consolidated domain level. Specifically, this number includes pages such as personal home pages, as does the same statistic for other portals.
