Gunnebo acquires Security Activity in France

Gunnebo's subsidiary, Fichet-Bauche, has today acquired a French company, Security Activity.

Security Activity is a division within Matra Nortel Communications which specialises in alarm systems, entrance control and CCTV.

Security Activity, whose head office is located in Paris, had a turnover of some 25 million French francs in 1999 and some 16 employees.

"The acquisition of Security Activity is strategic important and strengthens Fichet-Bauche's position on the French market for electronic security systems ", comments Bjarne Holmqvist, Gunnebo's President and CEO.
