Elanders AB (publ)

Elanders' first Galapagos™ order goes to Norway

Elanders' business area Infomedia has through Elanders Publishing A/S in Oslo, Norway signed a contract with Felleskatalogen AS to deliver the computer application Galapagos™.

The order is worth approximately MNOK 1,8.

Galapagos™ is a module based application that has been developed by Elanders Publishing AS for database publishing in any type of media. Galapagos™ is the most advanced support system on the market for business-to-business catalogues.

Felleskatalogen AS publishes information on all approved medicine in the Norwegian market and is known for its excellent quality. The project with Felleskatalogen AS is very important for adapting Galapagos™ to pharmaceutical information.

The contract further strengthens Elanders Publishing AS and Elanders business area Infomedia position as one of the leading suppliers of publishing services to the pharmaceutical industry.
