Has space ever been more inviting? Norway's uncrowded countryside, majestic mountains and crystal-clear fjords are waiting for you. When it comes to our scenery, 'spectacular' is simply an understatement. The Norwegian fjords are one of few natural phenomena to be awarded UNESCO World Heritage status. For more information on the fjord regions, visit www.fjordnorway.com. If you move quickly you can still make dramatic savings on holidays throughout Norway.
