Uniflex listed on the Nordic Exchange

Today, Uniflex AB has been listed on the Stockholm Stock Exchange. Uniflex moves up from First North to the main market.

Uniflex's business idea is staffing services, outsourcing and recruitment of professionals for industry, retail sales and office administration. The company is represented in more than 25 locations in Sweden and has some 2000 employees. Uniflex is a company with accredited environmental and quality management systems.

"It is very gratifying that Uniflex now takes the step from First North to our main market. Through the listing of Uniflex the investors get a valuable contribution to the Industrials sector," says Jenny Rosberg, President of Company Services at OMX.

A filmed interview with Uniflex's President and Chief Executive Officer Jan Bengtsson is available on the Nordic Exchange website at www.omxgroup.com/nordicexchange. Photographs will be available on www.omxgroup.com/nordicexchange/marketnews/corporateactions/listings.

A round lot of shares in Uniflex, whose short name is UFLX B, amounts to 100. Uniflex is a Small Cap company which is included in the Industrials sector.
