Bo Ringdahl appointed acting MD of HiQ's subsidiary in Stockholm

Bo Ringdahl is appointed acting managing director of HiQ Stockholm AB since Patrik Boman has announced that he will be leaving his position for another management position in the IT industry.

- Patrik has been a great asset to HiQ over the years and has helped building HiQ to what we are today. I would like to thank Patrik for the past years, and I would like to congratulate both him to his new position and his new employer to a good recruitment. I consider the fact that Patrik is leaving for a new management position in our industry an acknowledgement of the strength in the HiQ brand today, says Lars Stugemo, president and CEO HiQ.

Patrik Boman leaves his position as MD of HiQ Stockholm and Bo Ringdahl takes over as acting MD going forward.

- Bo Ringdahl has worked as sales person and group manager at HiQ Stockholm the past 10 years and together with other leaders in Stockholm helped to develop the company to one of the most successful consultancies in the Stockholm market. With his experience of our sector and his many years' experience of leadership and setting an example within HiQ, Bo will be able to take over the responsibility from Patrik in a good way, Stugemo continues.
