

September 25, 1997
Scancem acquires
Danish concrete company

The Danish company Perstrup Industri, within the Scancem business area Concrete Products, has acquired K.Ø. Beton in Skive, Denmark. Both companies produce prefabricated concrete products for agriculture and environmental applications. Their combined sales will amount to almost SEK 150 M with approximately 150 employees.

(Flemming Brun will be President for both operations, succeeding Ole Fast who has retired.)