

SAS Ground Services chosen by Icelandair at Paris Charles de Gaulle Airport

Icelandair chose SAS Ground Services (SGS) as its new provider of passenger services at Charles de Gaulle Airport in Paris. The contract is effective from February 1.

The new contract together with SGS' current services to Icelandair in the Nordic countries entails approx. 2,450 departures per year.

Icelandair is operating four flights weekly to Reykjavik, increasing to nine weekly during the summer season.

"The choice of SAS Ground Services is based on that they have the right match between product, service and price", says Astthor Ingason, Manager Stations at Icelandair.

"We are proud that Icelandair choose to expand their business relations to SAS Ground Services", says Jo Alex Tanem, Area Manager SAS Ground Services West & South Europe. "We are also very happy to be able to offer a product that matches the customer's demands in regards to price as well as quality."
