Cybercom appoints Per Jonsson as CFO

Cybercom recruited Per Jonsson as its new chief financial officer (CFO). Jonsson has a strong, international management profile. His most recent position was with Metro International.

Per Jonsson has extensive management experience in finance and operations – within national and international enterprises that operate in telecom and other emerging sectors.

“Cybercom is an emerging company. Going forward, Pers’ profile is a perfect match,” says Peter Keller-Andreasen, acting president and CEO of the Cybercom Group. “He has broad international experience and has worked extensively with company acquisitions. He’ll strengthen our executive management team, and I’m looking forward to working with him.”

Jonsson was born in 1966. He holds a business administration degree from Stockholm University. Earlier positions include CFO, CEO, business controller, and internal auditing manager for operations such as Metro International, Modern Holdings, Netcom Consultants, Ernst & Young, and International Business Partner Advice. Jonsson assumes his position with Cybercom on 1 March 2007.
