

SAS Ground Services chosen by Air France and KLM at Aberdeen Airport

Air France and KLM chose SAS Ground Services as their new provider of ground handling at Aberdeen Airport, both regarding passenger services and ramp handling. The agreements are valid from March 1.

KLM is operating 28 flights weekly to Amsterdam and Air France is operating 20 flights weekly to Paris, Charles de Gaulle.

"Both KLM and Air France are very pleased to be taken care of by SGS at Aberdeen and are looking forward to working together", says Niels Burgers, Operational support manager KLM Royal Dutch Airlines Europe & Gulf. "Extensive talks, familiarization and training have now been completed so that all is well in place before the first day of commencement."

"We are very happy that Air France and KLM chose SAS Ground Services as their partner at Aberdeen Airport," says Christer Svensson, Managing Director for SAS Ground Services UK. "It is especially pleasing to have attracted such prestigious customers, as we set up our operation at Aberdeen Airport just recently."
