

PRESS RELEASE 2005-10-18

Norwegian competition authorities approve Eniro's acquisition of Findexa

As previously announced, Eniro has reached an agreement to acquire the Norwegian group Findexa. Approval by the Norwegian competition authorities is one of the conditions of the agreement.

The Norwegian competition authorities have announced that the acquisition has been approved. It is expected that it will be possible to complete the acquisition on or about December 2, 2005 following a formal court decision on the British channel island of Jersey and approval by the shareholders of Findexa and Eniro.
