

Change in number of shares in Meda AB

As of 31 December 2007, shares in Meda AB total 256,679,351, which is 5,700,000 more shares than the previous month. The increase is due to newly issued shares in connection with the acquisition of Recip AB.

For more information, please contact:

Anders Larnholt, Investor Relations, tel. +46 709 458 878

MEDA AB (publ) is a leading European specialty pharma company that concentrates on marketing and market-adapted product development. Acquisitions and long-term partnerships are fundamental factors that drive the company's strategy. Meda is represented via its subsidiaries in more than 26 countries and has more than 1,500 employees within marketing and sales. Its products are sold in 120 countries. The Meda share is listed under Large Cap on the OMX Nordic Stock Exchange. Find out more, visit www.meda.se.