

Pressrelease

Enea receives 560 000 Euro order from Nokia NET/SWP

Täby; SWEDEN, Aug 4, 2000 - Enea OSE Systems and Enea Realtime announce orders from Nokia Networks Switching Platforms totalling 560.000 Euro (SEK 4 760 000). The orders hold embedded products and development for a software platform that can be used in Mobile Core Networks.

About Enea OSE Systems

Enea OSE Systems is the technological leader for realtime operating systems and development tools for building distributed and fault-tolerant realtime applications. A subsidiary of Enea Data AB (SAXESS: ENEA), Enea OSE Systems employs over 140 persons. The company focuses primarily on development in telecom, datacom, wireless and safety-critical industries.

For more information, please visit <http://www.enea.com>.

About Enea Realtime

Enea Realtime AB provides services and education within the area of realtime systems development. Enea Realtime employs over 340 persons and have offices located in Stockholm, Gothenburg, Malmö, Linköping and Helsinki.

For more information, please visit <http://www.enea.se>.

For more information please contact

Robert Largren VPM /Enea OSE Systems AB	+46 709 71 41 83
Dag Arrenfeldt Region Manager / Enea Realtime AB	+46 709 71 41 70