Press release

Stockholm, August 23 2000

New Scandic Hotel in Stockholm – 2002

Scandic will open a new 300-room hotel in the autumn of 2002 in Alvik, a western suburb 10 kilometers from central Stockholm. The NCC construction company will build the hotel in accordance with Scandic's environmental standards.

"The new hotel represents a highly significant strengthening of our position in western Stockholm," says Lars Sjölander, business area manager for Scandic Hotels in Sweden. "The hotel will be in a prime location, with many favourable communication possibilities, including public transport by bus and subway and proximity to an airport."
