Press release

To cut a long story short – we are now AAK

Almost three years ago, Aarhus United A/S and Karlshamns AB joined forces and became AarhusKarlshamn AB, making us a market leader in the vegetable speciality fat industry. The merger proved to be a very positive move, and we will now use the name that makes it easier to recognise us globally: AAK.

AAK is the world's leading manufacturer of high value added speciality vegetable fats. Our core business is vegetable oil solutions. We offer a broad variety of products and solutions for the production of food, chocolate and confectionery products, technical products, animal feed, nutraceuticals and cosmetics.

Please note: The names of all legal entities in the AAK Group will not change; i.e. "AarhusKarlshamn" will still be part of the legal names.
