

For Immediate Release

PRESSRELEASE

Björn Lindkvist joins nsgroup as head of HR

Lindkvist brings an impressive knowledge of managing Human Resources

Karlskrona, Sweden, september, 2000 — nsgroup, the provider of advanced e-commerce solutions in the B2B arena, has announced a new executive responsible for workforce/workplace issues. Björn Lindkvist joins nsgroup as head of human resources and a member of the nsgroup executive team.

Lindkvist joins to nsgroup from Evolator, where he held the position of Management Consultant. Lindkvist has a long history with nsgroup with several assignments including teamwork training, personnel development and other types of activities.

"Björn Lindkvist is a HR professional", says Nicklas Platow, chief executive officer at nsgroup. "He has a long experience of human resources issues and best practices. Lindkvist is a key addition to our executive team, necessary for our future expansion."

At nsgroup, Lindkvist will have responsibility for both personnel policies, as well as teamwork training, and dealing with legal mandates affecting employees.

Lindkvist's earlier experiences includes working as a commanding officer and teacher in the fields of leadership and tactics in the Royal Swedish Navy. The last three years as Company Commander with the rank of Major.

nsgroup offers state-of-the-art e-commerce solutions in the B2B area. nsgroup's core product, 4 Trade e-commerce platform, is primarily targeting Internetbased trading where the demand on scalability, performance and availability is significant. nsgroup is headquartered in Karlskrona, Sweden, and have offices in Gothenburg and Kalmar. Today the company have about 70 employees. By the end of year 2001 nsgroup expects to have grown substantially and been doubling the number of employees aswell as opened new offices abroad. nsgroups' homepage can be found at <http://www.nsgroup.net>

For further information contact;

nsgroup, Nicklas Platow
phone +46 455 – 30 80 81
email: nicklas.platow@nsgroup.net