Inauguration of new Scandic Hotel in Turku

Today, 21 September, sees the inauguration of Scandic Hotel Plaza in Turku. The hotel was included in Scandic's acquisition of Provobis and is the third Scandic hotel in Turku.

Scandic Hotel Plaza is extremely well-located – right in the centre of the town – and has undergone complete renovation prior to the inauguration. The hotel has an early functionalistic style throughout, apparent even in the 117 bedrooms. The majority of these are pleasant attic rooms with skylight windows.
