Acando to deliver national health case handling solution in Norway

The South-Eastern Norway Regional Health Authority (Helse SørØst RHF) has on the behalf of all the Regional Health Authorities in Norway selected Acando as supplier for the case handling solution for refund of expenses related to transport to/from health treatment locations.

The solution gives the Norwegian public health care a future proof, user friendly and efficient case handling solution for refund of travel expenses. The Regional Health Authorities will take over the responsibility for the case handling from The Norwegian Labor and Welfare Administration (NAV) January 1st 2010. The Solution will be used by local case handle units throughout the country and a national center.

The solution is based on open source with software from Sun Microsystems and Alfresco, and extends the existing national SOA solution with new products and services. Acando delivers the solution in cooperation with Avella, Sun Microsystems and RedPill Linpro AS as sub-contractors.

The Contract has a value of approximately 40 M NOK/5 M EUR, which includes development, implementation and solution administration over a five year period. In addition the contract has an option to extend the application management beyond the 5 years contract period with a total value of approximately 15 M NOK/3 M EUR.
