

Sigma becomes Lawson s largest partner in Sweden

– Signs reseller agreement for Lawson M3

Sigma has signed a reseller agreement with the business system provider Lawson. The company develops Lawson MS (formerly Movex), which is one of the world s leading business systems for manufacturing and distribution companies. Sigma is Lawson s largest partner in Sweden and as a reseller Sigma hopes to contribute to increasing Lawson s market presence and securing additional satisfied customers.

Sigma has grown sharply in the past 18 months within this area profitably. Currently, Sigma has more than 50 consultants engaged in business development, implementation and upgrading projects relates to the Lawson MS business system.

Sigma is recognized as strong in business systems and we have worked with Lawson M3 for many years as a service partner to Lawson. Now that we are a reseller, and as a result Lawson s largest partner in Sweden, we can continue to increase the rate of growth, says Anders Thern, Sigma.
