

Aspiro wins order worth 300,000 euros from European GSM operator

Aspiro is to deliver mobile Internet applications to a major European mobile operator over a three-year period. The order is worth 300,000 euros.

Aspiro has signed an agreement with a European operator for the delivery of mobile Internet applications. The deal, which comes into force January 1 and runs over 36 months, covers three mobile Internet services. The value of the order is equivalent to 300,000 euros.

"This conclusively proves that Aspiro's strategy of focusing on the international market was right," says Lena Wittbjer, Aspiro's CEO. "In just a short time, Aspiro has sold a large number of its mobile Internet applications to international mobile operators."
