HiQ develops new financial savings system for Aktiesparinvest

HiQ has signed an agreement to develop a new financial savings system alongside Aktiesparinvest AB.

Aktiesparinvest AB offers cost-effective savings solutions for small-scale savings in securities.

The newly developed system will provide support for all of Aktiesparinvest's products, which include Aktieinvest and Börs-SM. It will also meet the requirements imposed on modern systems for electronic trade in securities.

“At HiQ, we see this assignment as an indication that we are regarded as one of the leading suppliers to the finance sector of high-tech solutions based on the latest technology,” says Patrik Boman, MD of HiQ Stockholm.

The assignment involves 10,000 hours during the first phase and both parties are hoping for long-term collaboration.

“The financial services industry is one that requires advanced business-critical solutions which need round-the-clock accessibility. HiQ has focused on systems development for the financial sector for four years now and has developed several securities management systems with high demands as regards performance and security,” says Lars Stugemo, CEO HiQ International.
