Remuneration to executive officers will be decided by the board of directors in accordance with Nordea's internal policies and procedures, which are based on the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority's ("SFSA") regulations on remuneration systems, EU's directive on capital requirements for banks as well as international sound compensation practices. Salaries and other remuneration in line with market levels is the overriding principle for compensation to executive officers within Nordea.

Compensation to the executive officers shall be consistent with and promote sound and effective risk management and not encourage excessive risk-taking or counteract Nordea's long term interests. Annual remuneration consists of fixed salary and variable salary. The executive officers have up to 2012 been offered a short term variable salary part ("VSP") and a Long Term Incentive Programme ("LTIP"). In order to reduce the complexity of having both VSP and LTIP the executive officers will be offered an Executive Incentive Programme 2013 ("GEM EIP 2013") to reward performance meeting predetermined targets on Group, business unit and individual level. The effect on the long term result is to be considered when determining the targets. The outcome from EIP 2013 shall be paid over a five year period in cash and be subject to forfeiture clauses, Total Shareholder Return indexation and retention based on the SFSA's regulations on remuneration systems, taking account of domestic rules and practices where relevant. GEM EIP 2013 has a one year performance period and the outcome shall not exceed the fixed salary. In accordance with SFSA's remuneration regulations guaranteed variable salary is to be exceptional and may only occur in the context of hiring a new executive officer and then be limited to the first year. Non-monetary benefits are given as a means to facilitate executive officers' performance. The levels of these benefits are determined by what is considered fair in relation to general market practice. The executive officers shall be offered retirement benefits in accordance with market practice in the country of which they are permanent residents. Notice and severance pay in total shall not exceed 24 months of fixed salary for executive officers. The board of directors may deviate from these guidelines if there in a certain case are special reasons for this.
