AerotechTelub lay off 60 personnel in Arboga and Linköping

Due to lower order bookings from defense and industrial customers, AerotechTelub AB is giving notice to 30 people in Arboga and 30 in Linköping. Reductions will also affect a number of employees at other locations within the company.

The measure is an adaptation in line with the prevailing order and capacity situation. The union organizations have been informed, and negotiations will begin after the summer break.

AerotechTelub is a service company which offers qualified technical services, maintenance and customer-adapted system solutions within information technology, electronics and aviation technology for the military and civil defense, government departments and public authorities as well as selected sectors of trade and industry.

AerotechTelub, a company in the Saab Group, has 2,100 employees and net sales of approximately SEK 2.1 billion.

Saab is one of the world's leading high-technology companies, with its main operations focusing on defence, aviation and space. The group covers a broad spectrum of competence and capabilities in systems integration.
