Dan-Åke Enstedt new President of AerotechTelub AB

Kenth-Åke Jönsson has transferred to a position in the Saab Group management with responsibility for several companies, among them AerotechTelub AB. Kenth-Åke is therefore leaving his post as President of AerotechTelub to become the company's Chairman of the Board instead. Dan-Åke Enstedt has been appointed the new President of AerotechTelub AB. Dan-Åke was previously Vice President of AerotechTelub.

Some further organizational changes have been made. Peter Thornström, previously head of the Information Systems division, has moved to SaabTech AB as project manager for a large customer project in the field of network-centric defense.

Joakim Kruse, former head of the Communications division, succeeds Peter Thornström as head of Information Systems.

Michael Höglund is now taking over as head of the Communications division after Joakim Kruse. Michael was formerly the manager of the Infrastructure department within Communications.

AerotechTelub is a service company which offers qualified technical services, maintenance and customer-adapted system solutions within information technology, electronics and aviation technology for the military and civil defense, government departments and public authorities as well as selected sectors of trade and industry. AerotechTelub, a company in the Saab Group, has 2,100 employees and a turnover of approximately SEK 2.1 billion.

Saab is one of the world's leading high-technology companies, with its main operations focusing on defense, aviation and space. The Group covers a broad spectrum of competence and capability in systems integration.
