Saab's acquisition of Maersk Data Defence complete

Saab's purchase of Maersk Data Defence, which was announced on 29 May 2006, is now complete. The Danish Ministry of Justice has approved the deal. The unit will be integrated in the business units Saab Communication and Saab Systems. A new name for the unit is to be decided.

Saab is one of the world's leading high-technology companies, with its main operations focusing on defence, aviation and space. The group covers a broad spectrum of competence and capabilities in systems integration.
