Former State Secretary Jonas Hjelm appointed to Saab

The former State Secretary at the Ministry of Defence, Jonas Hjelm, has been appointed to a position at Saab Corporate Strategy and Business Development.

Jonas Hjelm will be responsible, among other things, for contacts with the Swedish defence market and Saab's European contacts (European Defence Agency, EDA among others).

Jonas Hjelm comes most recently from a position as State Secretary at the Ministry of Defence, and he has held several senior positions within Government Offices, including Political Adviser in the Prime Minister's Office.

Jonas Hjelm will start his new position on December 11, 2006.

Saab is one of the world's leading high-technology companies, with its main operations focusing on defence, aviation and space. The group covers a broad spectrum of competence and capabilities in systems integration.
