Ingemar Andersson leaves Saab AB

Saab's Executive Vice President and Deputy CEO, Ingemar Andersson, is to relinquish all duties at Saab AB.

"Ingemar and I have concluded that our collaboration is not functioning satisfactorily, so that the company can be taken forward effectively. I have therefore taken the decision that Ingemar will be leaving Saab", says Saab's CEO and President Åke Svensson.

The recruitment process to find a successor has started.

"I would like to point out that, over the years, Ingemar Andersson has done an excellent job with the operational work in those business units that he has been responsible for", says Åke Svensson.

Saab serves the global market with world-leading products, services and solutions ranging from military defence to civil security. Saab has operations and employees on all continents and constantly develops, adopts and improves new technology to meet customers' changing needs.
