Saab awarded U.S. contract for instrumented training system

Saab has signed a contract to produce training systems for the U.S. Marine Corps. Within the frame of the contract, that has a possible value of approximately $29 million, a first order, valued at $22 million, has been placed.

“This will significantly expand the current base of training systems already fielded by Saab for the U.S. Marine Corps,” says Lars Borgwing, President, Saab Training USA.

The same training system is fielded with the U.S. Army, U.S. Navy SEALs and five armies in Europe.

Saab serves the global market with world-leading products, services and solutions ranging from military defence to civil security. Saab has operations and employees on all continents and constantly develops, adopts and improves new technology to meet customers' changing needs.
