

PRESS RELEASE FROM SCRIBONA AB (publ)

March 22, 2001

Application from Scribona AB to the Swedish Competition Authority regarding acquisition of PC LAN ASA is considered by Competition Authority without action

On February 5, 2001, Scribona AB (publ) made a public offer to acquire all shares outstanding in PC LAN ASA. The acceptance period began on March 6, 2001 and expired on March 20, 2001 at 4:00 p.m. At expiration of the acceptance period, it was extended to March 22 at 4:00 p.m. Certain terms and conditions are linked to the offer. Following is the statement from the Swedish Competition Authority.

With respect to Scribona AB's application regarding corporate consolidation in connection with the Company's offer to acquire the shares in PC LAN ASA, the Swedish Competition Authority decided on March 21, 2001 not to take any action.

---

Facts about Scribona AB

Scribona is the Nordic region's leading supplier of IT products and solutions in which the customer is offered leading-edge know-how about products, the industry's leading e-commerce systems, optimized product availability and a broad program of complete services. Scribona's operations are organized in three business areas:

- Scribona Solutions – value-adding distribution of IT infrastructure
- Scribona Distribution – efficient volume distribution of IT products
- Scribona Brand Alliance – exclusive agent for leading brands

For additional information, please contact:

Lennart Svantesson, President, Scribona, +46 8 734 45 76

Anders Bley, Executive Vice President, Scribona , +46 8 734 35 55