PROHA REORGAIZES ITS GROUP STRUCTURES IN FINLAND

Proha simplifies its corporate structure following the acquisitions made in 2000. In Finland the operations will be rearranged into companies operating within the three business areas (Project management, Financial management, and Internet technologies). The arrangements will be made during spring 2001. The aim is to enhance operations and to decrease recruitment pressures arising from fast growth. The arrangements will also include transferring personnel between the companies. The arrangements will not effect the foreign subsidiaries of Proha. Nor will they influence the customer relations or product offering in Finland.
