

PRESS RELEASE

Atle completes divestment of Digital Vision holdings

- Exit gains: SEK 11 m

Atle IT has sold 1,040,670 Digital Vision shares, corresponding to approximately 19.5% of the capital and votes of this corporation, to a company owned by Lars Taflin. This divestment, representing all of Atle's residual holdings in Digital Vision, generated an exit gain of some SEK 11 m.

Atle now considers that it has fulfilled its ownership role in Digital Vision and views Mr. Taflin—former main owner of Autodiagnos, previously quoted on the Stockholm SBI list—as an appropriate owner, both in industrial terms, and for the long term. This divestment is consistent with Atle's business concept of exiting holdings after fulfilling its tasks.

Digital Vision is a world leader in high-tech digital image processing equipment for film, video and telecommunication.
