Gunnar Rustad to join Scania management Urban Erdtman to head SVW

Gunnar Rustad, currently MD of Scania's German subsidiary, Scania Deutschland GmbH, will join the Scania Executive Management as of 1 August 2001. Mr. Rustad will succeed Urban Erdtman, Group Vice President, Sales and Marketing, who will become MD of Svenska Volkswagen in succession to Åke Norrman, who is to retire on pension.

As part of the top-level changes at Scania, Johan P. Schlyter, now Sales Manager, Sales and Marketing in Södertälje, will become MD of Scania Deutschland GmbH.

"It is with great pleasure that we welcome Gunnar Rustad to our management team," comments Leif Östling, President and CEO of Scania. "Gunnar Rustad has directed operations in one of Scania's most important export markets with significant success, making Scania the leading foreign make after the domestic leaders, with a market share of 10 percent."
