Factum receives orders from Italy and Australia

Factum Electronics AB, global supplier of head end equipment for DAB/DAB+, DMB and NICAM, announces new orders for DAB+ equipment in Italy and Australia.

In conjunction with the newly released Italian regulation for DAB+, Italian state-owned transmission and broadcasting network operator Raiway invests in additional Factum Digital Radio head end equipment.

Community Broadcasting Association Australia (CBAA), the national body for community radio and television stations in Australia, adds redundancy to its current Service Multiplexing sites, using the RSW100 Factum seamless redundancy switch.
