

ElektronikGruppen

Pressrelease 2001 03 16

ElektronikGruppen's net sales and profit for the first quarter are anticipated to reach considerable growth than equivalent period previous year.

Especially sales of microwave and fiber optic components show substantially growth.

Further more to strengthen the market position in eastern Europe, ElektronikGruppen has open a sales company in Brno in the Czech Rep. The company will in the opening phase sell production equipment and process education. Later on also sales of electronic components will follow.

For further information please contact Johnny Alvarsson, President of ElektronikGruppen, +46 8 759 35 43, +46 70 589 17 95.

ElektronikGruppen is a listed company with a turnover of appr 700 MSEK and more than 1000 employees in 7 countries divided in four business areas.

EG Communication with its head office in Uppsala, EG ComTech AB, develop and manufacture fiber optic products and deliver key netsolutions for broadband services in the Nordic area and Asia.

EG Electronic Components market customized components to the leading electronic industry in the Nordic area, the Baltic States and U.K.

EG MTC develop and manufacture inductive components for telecom and other industrial markets. The sale is global.

EG Production Technology, sales of production equipment and process education to the electronic industry.