What's on at Lantra's stand during the Royal Highland Show

Lantra, the Sector Skills Council for environmental and land-based industries is hosting a number of events during the Royal Highland Agricultural Show in Inverclyde this week, so why not come along and see what we have to offer?

§ Want to find out more about how a low carbon economy can benefit farmers, land managers and crofters? If so, then why not join us for a lunch reception on Thursday 24th June at 12.30 pm where we also anticipate being joined by Scottish Government Minister, Roseanna Cunningham MSP, Minister for Environment.

§ Are you running or thinking of starting a rural business? Want to hear from other Scottish rural business women who will share advice on their business skills? If so, join us for a late breakfast on Friday 25th June at 10.00 am to hear these success stories first hand and discover what opportunities and help could be available to you.

§ Hear about the benefits of Modern Apprenticeships and have your questions answered by meeting an apprentice and an employer. Join us at our reception between 12 – 1 pm on Friday 25th June.

§ Interested in a career in the environmental and land-based sector? Why not come along to the Lantra stand and find out more about the range of careers on offer.

Don't forget to enter our free competition to win a luxurious gift hamper worth £100 from Gloagburn Farm Shop, or an HMV or I-tune voucher worth £50.

You can find us at Stand 199, 7th Avenue, right in the centre of Inverclyde's Royal Highland Showground. Why not come along and see what Lantra has to offer you.
